The American Salers Foundation will award a scholarship annually to a member of the American Salers Junior Association. The winner will be announced during the National Western Stock Show Show.

Eligibility:

The applicant must be a member in good standing of the American Salers Junior Association (ASJA); and have been a member of the ASJA for at least two years. Scholarship funds are to be used for furthering the recipient's education in the field of their choice. Applicants must be at least a high school senior, as funds are for post-secondary education.

Funds:

Two scholarships in the amount of $1,000 will be paid directly to the recipient for funding of fees at their post-secondary institution.

Selection:

The scholarship committee will evaluate all applicants and make their decision based on the merits of the application. Selection will be based on: academic record, activities and Salers cattle involvement.

Application:

The Foundation scholarship application can be found on the back side on this page. The completed application must be accompanied by a current transcript and picture. Deadline for submission of all information is December 1.

All materials should be mailed to:

American Salers Association, 19590 E. Mainstreet, Suite 104, Parker, CO 80138
